New Millennium

Stay and see,
How the earth grows,
During the coming Millennium,
And how the golden rays,
Of the morning sun,
Will shine through the Sun's corona
With loving warmth.

Stay and see,
How soon the life will change,
And Mankind,
Will be more affable than before.
Enough is enough,
With anything we did to each other.
It's the era for a crucial change.
Towards:
Freedom,
Independency,
Equality,
And Humanity.

This is the era of expanding science,
Extending knowledge,
Composing Music,
Chanting poems,
And the joyfulness of welcoming the one,
Who will arrive from a distant Star.

How marvellous,
To imagine a wishing world,
And welcoming the New Millennium.
